Haringey Walking Weekend 2016

October 1st and 2nd across the Borough

Explore the natural, architectural and historical delights of Haringey by joining one of these specially designed mainly free guided walks

Haringey Walking Weekend has been organised, in this, Haringey's Year of Walking, to showcase Haringey with all its rich history and natural beauty. It has been put together by Haringey residents, active in Residents Associations and Parks Friends Groups, passionate about their environment and their communities.

We hope that you will enjoy the walks, share them with friends and get to know areas of the Borough you have never visited before.

Walking is a healthy, sociable and free form of exercise and in Haringey we are fortunate to have so much, and such a variety, of green spaces and interesting neighbourhoods to visit and enjoy.

Get Walking and Enjoy Yourselves!

Organised by the Haringey Friends of Parks Forum www.haringeyfriendsofparks.org.uk and the Haringey Federation of Residents Associations www.haringeyresidents.org

All walks are FREE For information on wheelchair/buggy accessibility please contact the walk leader details given at the end of each walk.

■ Tree Trail – uncovering the hidden history of Chestnuts and St Ann's Hospital

Saturday 1st October. Meet at 1.30pm outside Chestnuts Park café, St Ann's Rd, N15 5BN for Chestnuts walk and after a break at 2.15pm will regroup at 2.30pm inside St Ann's Hospital entrance for Hospital Walk.

Originally a watercress farm, Chestnuts Park opened in 1900 with impressive avenues of London Plane trees and some curious features including a "stumpery".

The Friends of Chestnuts Park have made improvements planting 1000 hedging trees, an orchard and a willow and wildlife garden with sculptures.

Over the road and nearly a hundred years earlier, an ex Kew Gardens employee oversaw the planting of the grounds of St Ann's Hospital. Follow the trail of exotic and rare trees and see how many you can identify. Passing the original Water Tower, we'll take the last remaining cobbled street in Haringey to an untouched woodland area. We'll also consider the possible impact of redevelopment plans for the Hospital on both these green spaces. Members of the StART Community Land Trust will be available to answer questions.

The walk will take an hour and a half and finish at Chestnuts Café. Walk jointly led by Friends of Chestnuts Park and StART environment group See: www.friendsofchestnuts.org.uk and www.startharingey.co.uk

Buses: 67 via Stamford Hill and Wood Green/Turnpike Lane or 341 via Manor House or Northumberland Park

Explore the Park at Ally Pally 1

Saturday 1st October. Meet at 3pm at the Park Information Centre in The Grove N10 2QA (just up from the Grove Car Park toward Muswell Hill). The walk will take you through Alexandra Park to see some of its attractions, both natural and man-made, and snapshots of its history: beautiful and unusual trees, the sites where an airship was built and a banqueting hall stood, the lovely rose garden and more. The walk will take about an hour and a half. It will finish at the eastern entrance to the Park.

Sunday Walks

■ Glimpses of Community Empowerment – Then and Now – in an area of Central Tottenham

Sunday 2nd October. Meet at 11am at the main gates of Lordship Rec, Lordship Lane, N17 6AE.

Visit Tower Gardens Estate, Broadwater Farm Estate and Lordship Recreation Ground to see some of the fruits of decades of organised community initiative, mutual aid, solidarity and campaigning to improve the local area. Come and share your own experiences, anecdotes and views about community empowerment in Tottenham, and the need for more of it! Ends 1pm at The Hub Community Cafe in Lordship Rec. Wheelchair accessible.

Walk leader: Dave Morris, Chair of the Friends of Lordship Rec – dmorris@onetel.com

Buses: 123 and 243 from Turnpike Lane or Wood Green (Piccadilly Line)

Finsbury Park Tree Trail

Sunday 2nd October. Meet at 10.50am for 11am start by the boating lake cafe entrance.

Did you know there is a Giant Redwood tree in Finsbury Park? If you'd like to find out more, we'd like you to join us for a guided walk around some of the trees in Finsbury Park. The Tree Trail was created by the Friends of Finsbury Park to help park users to identify some of the most common trees in the park.

The trail showcases 16 trees on a mile long route through the park. A leaflet showing the route will be provided and we will also follow the route on a the TiCL smartphone app.

There are many classic British trees including an oak, copper beech, horse chestnut, holly and silver birch. Our favourites include a plane tree, the willow and the distinctly non-native giant redwood, which is hidden away in a copse close to Manor House gate.

We'll also take a quick look at some of the new trees that were planted this spring and one or two hidden gems by the bowling green and in the American Garden.

So, if you'd like to stretch your legs and learn about trees at the same time, we hope you can join us. The walk should take no longer than one hour and a half.

Parkland Walk 2

Sunday 2nd October. Meet at 2.30pm at the Finsbury Park end of the Walk, at the end of Oxford Road, where the footbridge from Finsbury Park crosses the main railway line N4 3EY.

London's longest nature reserve follows the route of the old railway line from Finsbury Park to Muswell Hill. It is in two parts, connected by paths in Queen's Wood and Highgate Wood.

The walk will have two groups. The 'fast' group will go along the 4 miles of both sections of the Parkland Walk, and continue on to Alexandra Palace for refreshments and a breathtaking view. The 'slow' group will follow behind, with a more leisurely walk finishing at the Highgate tunnels.

The walk is full of variety. Dense tree-lined avenues, punctuated by open glades, finally brings you to the old railway viaduct in Muswell Hill with expansive views of London. The Guardian selected Parkland Walk as one of the finest walks in London. Look out for signs of the railway like the platforms of the old Crouch End station, and Marilyn Collin's evocative sculpture of 'The Spriggan', a legendary creature of faery lore. The Friends of the Parkland Walk running this walk will answer questions.
