

William Morris Gallery

Explore the life and legacy of William Morris, Walthamstow's most famous son. Open 12noon–5pm with free family activities all weekend inside and outside the Gallery (1–4pm).

Useful & Beautiful Craft Marquee

Get crafty with woodwork, printmaking and knitting workshops, jewellery and demonstrations from 12noon–5pm each day.

E17 Designers Market

A wide selection of local designers, artists and makers selling beautiful handmade jewellery, clothes, prints and gifts. Open 12–5pm each day.

Real Food Festival

Showcasing the very best, most creative street food traders and celebrating the amazing multiculturalism of London's street food scene. Get a taste of the best of Walthamstow's own micro-breweries at the craft beer bar.

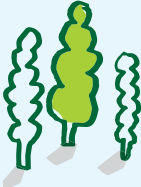

Summer Appetite Festival

The ideal chill-out space, complete with deckchairs, vintage vehicles and the opportunity to taste and buy from stalls set up by our favourite E17 foodies – everything from Walthamstow-grown organic vegetables to mouthwatering must-have gourmet food delights.

William Morris and Radical Walthamstow

On Sunday join the Friends of William Morris to explore Walthamstow. Meet at 10.30am at Vestry House Museum (Vestry Road, E17 9NH). The tour will finish at Lloyd Park at 12noon.

Information and times subject to change. For event terms and conditions please see www.walthamforest.gov.uk/get-together
